Product Description

About:

Vadi Matta rice, also known as Kerala Matta rice or Palakkadan Matta rice, is a traditional variety indigenous to the Palakkad district of Kerala, India. Renowned for its distinctive reddish-brown hue and robust, earthy flavor, this rice is a staple in South Indian cuisine.

The grains are medium to long in length, with a reddish-brown color due to the retention of the bran layer. Upon cooking, Vadi Matta rice offers a firm, chewy texture, making it ideal for dishes that require the rice to hold its shape.
