Product Description

ABOUT :

Green Peas is made from whole beans that have been hulled and split, resulting in a delicate lentil-like legume that is quick to cook and easy to digest. It is high in dietary fiber and an excellent source of protein, making this a healthy choice for vegans, vegetarians, and omnivores alike. Green Peas is a staple food in many countries all over the world and certified organic dal can be difficult to find in India. Our dal is certified organic, sustainably sourced, and can make a great addition to your pantry.
