Product Description

About:

Red Matta rice, also known as Kerala Red rice or Rosematta rice, is a variety of short-grain rice that is popular in the Indian state of Kerala. It is known for its distinctive reddish-brown color and unique flavor. Red Matta rice has a reddish-brown husk and bran layer, which gives it its characteristic color. The rice grains themselves are short and plump.

This rice has a slightly nutty flavor and a soft, chewy texture. The bran layer adds a subtle earthy taste to the rice, making it distinct from regular white rice. Red Matta rice is commonly used in South Indian and Kerala cuisine. It is often served with curries, stews, and lentils. It pairs well with coconut-based dishes and spicy gravies. It can also be used in rice-based dishes like pulao or biryani.
