Product Description

About:

Seeraga Samba Rice, often called the "King of Rice," is a premium variety of short-grain rice that derives its name from its resemblance to cumin seeds (seeragam in Tamil). Native to Tamil Nadu, India, this rice is revered for its unparalleled aroma, delicate flavor, and unique texture, making it a staple in traditional South Indian cooking, particularly in dishes like biriyani.

Seeraga Samba is known for its small, oval-shaped grains that are uniform in size and slightly smaller than standard short-grain rice varieties. Its compact form ensures even cooking and flavor absorption. The grains are naturally pearly white with a subtle sheen, enhancing the visual appeal of the dishes it is used in. Seeraga Samba has a natural, earthy aroma that intensifies upon cooking, filling kitchens with a warm and inviting fragrance.
